

real
couples

winnie & hod AUGUST 5, BRONX

Winnie Leung (now 30) met Hod Dunbar on the beaches of Grenada, where they attended the same medical school. “Winnie’s balcony was directly above mine,” says Hod (now 36). “She would go for a swim every afternoon at four o’clock when I was studying on my terrace.” Hod’s crush from afar became a real-life love when the two met and began dating. Five years later, the couple (now both physicians) took a vacation to Italy with Hod’s family, who were all anticipating a proposal. Hod waited until the last night, cleverly slipping the ring (a gift from his father to his mother on their fifteenth wedding anniversary) and a love note into her passport. “He kept trying to get me to look at my passport, but I didn’t open it until the next morning,” says Winnie. The couple celebrated the entire way home. —K.H.

INGREDIENTS
Photography by Erik Ekroth at Wave Hill; flowers by The Flower Girls in New York

click
>>

Find more details on these weddings at TheKnot.com/nymetro